

ALLIANCE Schlumberger

SEVILLA 2003

Claude Boyeldieu

On May 24th 2003, three weeks before our reunion in Seville, Claude Boyeldieu President of Alliance Schlumberger - "Bibiche" for many of us - passed away after a short illness. With Blurette's help, Claude had organised most of this Seville reunion as well as many previous ones.

We shall all miss Claude's sense of humour, his friendliness and his dedication to Schlumberger and to our Alliance, on whose board he served so faithfully and so well.

Our June reunion in Seville gathered together some 190 participants in the Hotel Trip Macarena. The travel agency Iberrail, which Claude had decided to use to organise most of the activities and visits, was really quite efficient and the smiling availability of their two hostesses was very much appreciated by all of us.

This booklet has been produced with contributions from those participants who had not forgotten to bring their cameras !

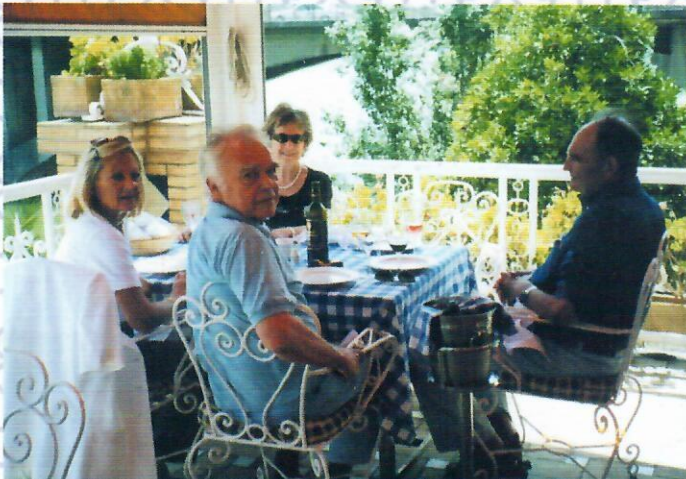

Thank you for your contributions!

Jean-Daniel Peyrat

Sevilla 2003

La Fiesta! Jean-Pierre Bourin

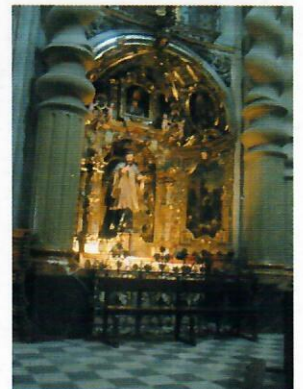

Hillary Roland, Jean Deslandes, Ans Brown, Michel Roland

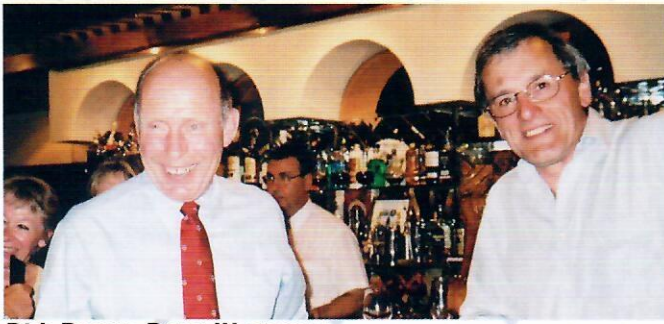

Linda and Victor Grijalva

Sevilla was an inspired choice for the ALLIANCE Schlumberger reunion in 2003 and the Hotel Tryp Macarena was ideal for the meeting, with its large public area, fine cuisine and comfortable rooms, once some earlycomers had fixed the air conditioning system!

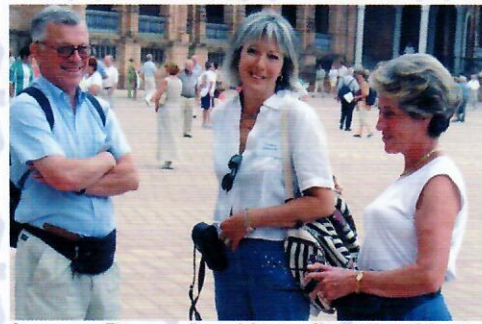

As we gathered for aperitifs before a simple dinner on Friday evening, it became apparent how popular the reunion was, with nearly 200 people filling the hotel bar and foyer. Dinner provided the first real opportunity to see who had come, and we spent as much time wandering from table to table as sitting down to eat and drink. On Saturday, after breakfast, the group visited the

Sevilla
2003

Dick Brown, Peter Westaway

Jacques Biscay, Ana-Maria Chouillet, Monique Biscay

La Fiesta!

Sylvia and Rodolpho Beylis, Eric Robinson,

Ann Stark and Joe Goetz

Gesine Hiller, Anita Wawzenitz, Simone Morin

Jacques Bonsergent, Nicole Fiquet, Jacques Biscay, Michèle Bonsergent, Louis Morin

Pierre Rochette, Jean-Dominique Percevault

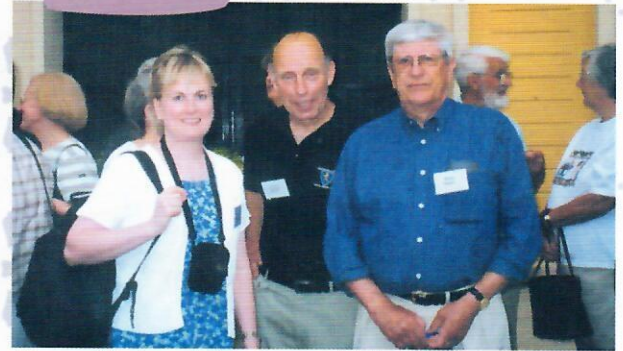

Sevilla
2003

Maria-Eliana Robinson, Jean-Marie Chouillet, Sylvia Beylis, Victor and Linda Grijalva, Jean Morin, Luisa Morin, Ana-Maria Chouillet

Maribel Powell and Jean-Pierre Bourin showing their skills at flamenco dancing

Hanne Madsen, Dick Brown, Michel Fiquet

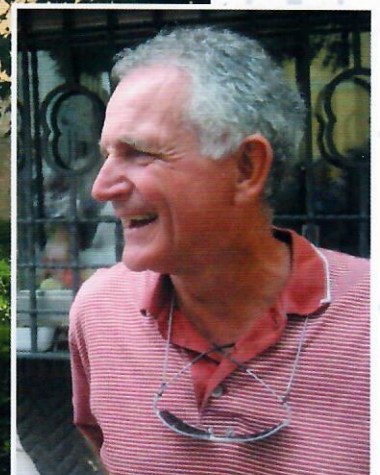

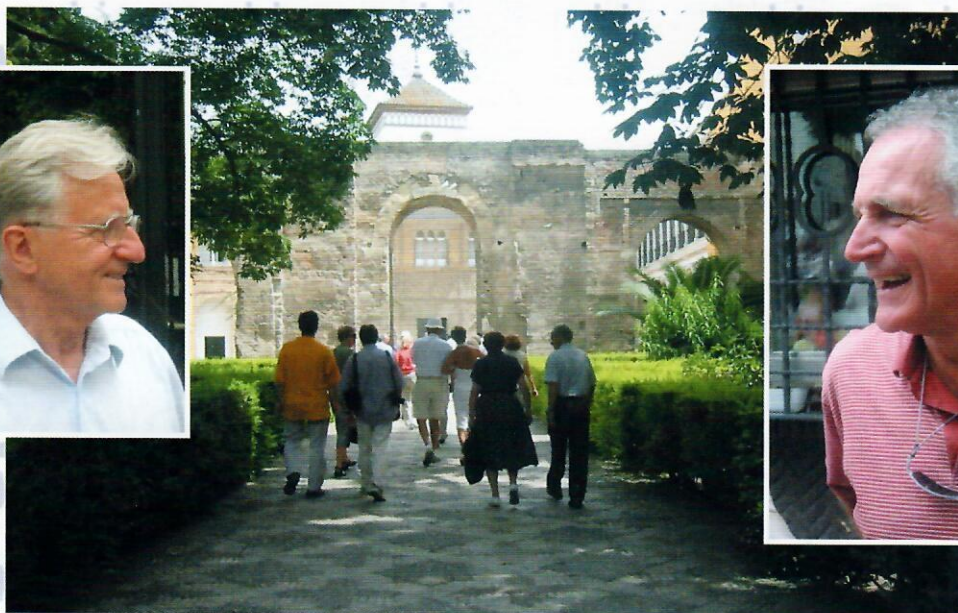

Sylvie Enselle, Catherine and François Sagné, Giorgio Bordini

Rosi Pforter, Ernest Collet, Uwe Pforter and Doris Clauss

Doris and
Gerhard Clauss

Pierre
Rochette

Arminda Bourin, Eleonora Ayetsaran, Sylvia Beylis, Ana Gomez

Tony and Maribel Powell

Dudley Reed, June Reed, Vlatka Neville, Norman Neville

Gerhard Scholz, Yatie Rochette, Anne Scholz, Pierre Rochette

Robert Nicolas, Yatie and Pierre Rochette, Thérèse Granier

Don Mitchell, Margaret Jarvis, Sheila and Harry Roberts

Sevilla 2003

Bernard Lechardoy, Heinz Denkl

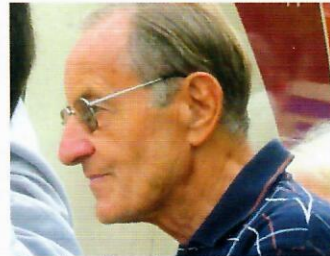

Armelle Boutan, Robert Pascaud and Martine Peyrat

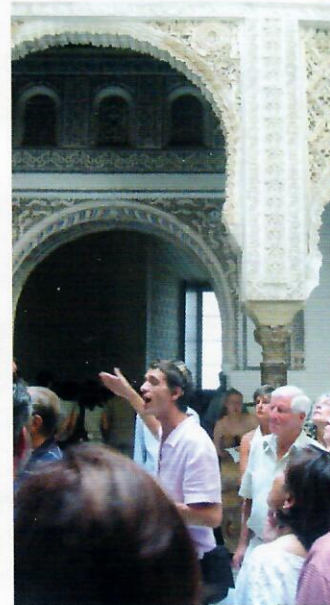

Luis and Eleonora Ayestaran, Fanfan Arlandis

Cheers!

Dudley Reed

Marie-Thérèse Dureux

Barrio of Santa Cruz in the heart of Seville's old town, walking through the Old Jewish Quarter whose narrow cobbled streets and small white houses were in such contrast to the vaulted spaces of the majestic Giralda Cathedral. Then after a leisurely lunch, off we went again (some found time for a short siesta) to visit the Real Alcazar, once the Seville residence of the Kings of Spain - a wonderful palace whose cool shady halls and splendid gardens reminded us of the strong Moorish cultural and architectural influence that is to be seen everywhere in Andalusia. The Feria de Sevilla Gala dinner on Saturday evening was a most impressive affair held in the hotel's Grand Reception Room. The buffet dinner consisted of a wide selection of Andalucian and other regional specialities, many of which we had never seen or tasted before. The musical entertainment was lively and spectacular, with guitars, singing and Flamenco dancing. This proved irresistible to many of us, who tried to equal the skills of the Flamenco dancing troupe - with remarkable success in some cases.

On Sunday, we went on

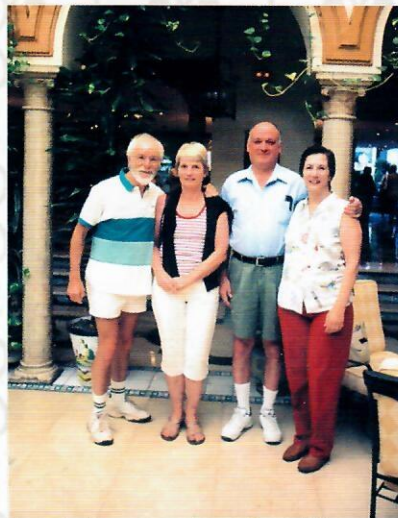

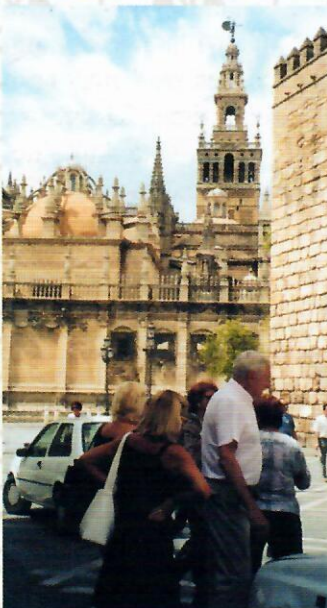

Sevilla
2003

Maria Eliana Robinson, Claudine Durand

Michele Halford,
Françoise Delauré,
Nicole Jennings

Just before tennis at Tryp Macarena.
Marcel and Françoise Loosbergh,
Julio and Ana Maria Gomez

Sylvie Enselme, Gerhard Scholz, Pierre Enselme, Anne Scholz

Guess who... JDP avoiding being photographed

Wolfgang Muller, Helmüt Jünk, Hildegard Jünk, Helga Köppe,
Lore Müller

Olga and Cecil Branson, June Reed, Yati Rochette,
Giorgio Bordini

David Ford,
Vic Grijalva,
André Salaber,
Fanfan Arlandis

the all day excursion to Jerez de la Frontera, an attractive town near the Atlantic coast, known throughout the world for its production of sherry. The bus journey was used to catch up with friends and acquaintances we hadn't seen for a long time. There, we visited the Catedral del Salvador and the Alcazar, with its well preserved 12th century mosque, converted into a church after the expulsion of the Moors. An excellent lunch at a typical local restaurant, the Finca de las Beatillas, featured succulent dishes and wines of the Cádiz region. Towards the end of the lunch, our colleague Pierre Reichert stood up to make a moving speech in honour of our dear departed President, Claude Boyledieu, whom we then saluted with a toast. In the afternoon, we had a

Giorgio Bordini, Jean-Baptiste and
Luisa Morin

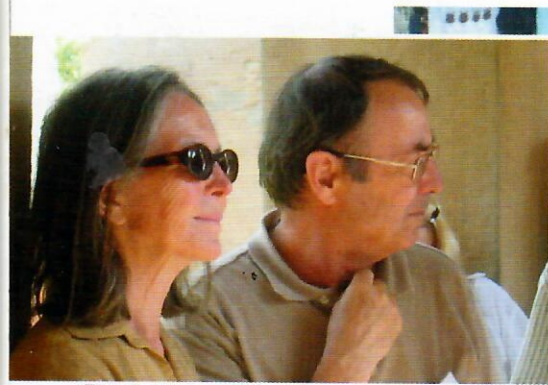

Tony Powell and Jean-Luc Péron

Andrée Ferraton, Michel Auberty, Helga Köppe, Gilberte
Auberty, Joseph Ferraton

The Hiller and Peter Jarvis

Elizabeth and Karl Frenes

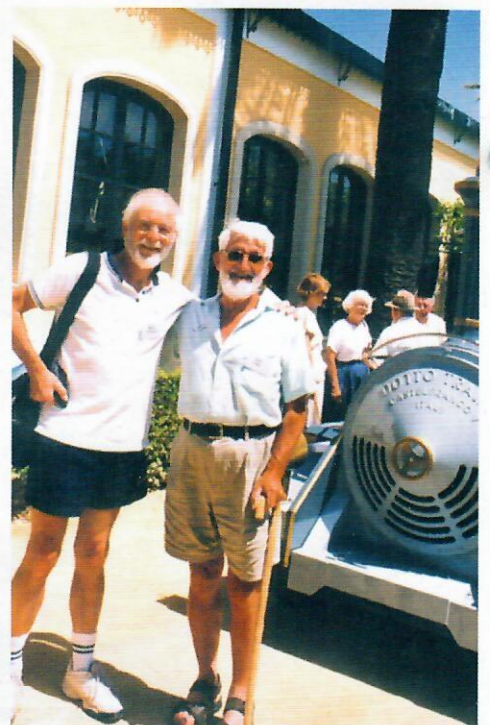

Happy days with good friends... Eric Robinson and Rolf Poppinga

Oysten Nyberg, Armelle Boutan, Robert Pascaud, Martine Peyrat, Veronique Pascaud, Bernard Boutan, Jean-Daniel Peyrat, Pat Nyberg

Michèle Halford

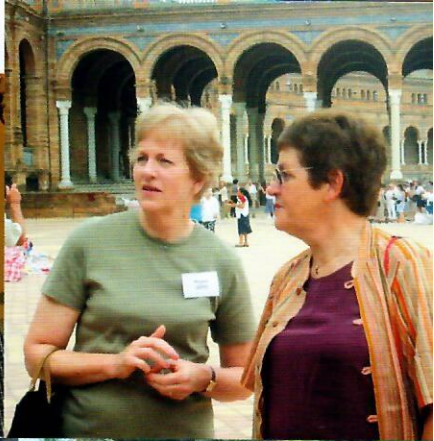

Look-alikes!!! at Tio Pépé. Who is who? David Ford or Marcel Loosbergh

John Kirwan, Yatie Rochette, Robert Ross, Rolf Poppinga

Willy Claes, Georges Ollier

very interesting and educational visit to Bodega Gonzales Byass, the premises of one of the major sherry producers, famous for Tio Pepe fino sherry, with its autographed sherry casks: Orson Welles, Mario Vargas Llosa, Cocteau, to name a few.

Then it was back to the bus for the return trip to Seville and our hotel, for us to have dinner and say goodbye to each other until 2005.

Reunion

During the General Meeting of Alliance Schlumberger held in Paris last October a new board has been elected:

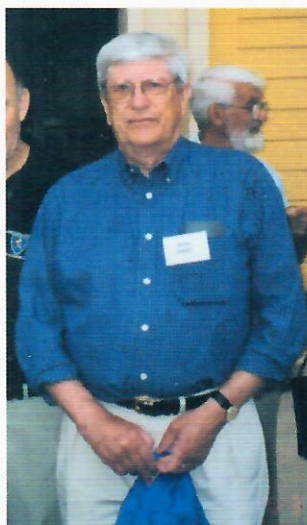

from left to right:
Eric Robinson (Assistant),
Daniel Henry (Secretary),
David Pennington (Assistant),
Nicole Gauthier (Vice-President),
Jean-Daniel Peyrat (President),
Maurice Ezran (Assistant),
Bruno Berthelin (Honorary President),
Pierre Reichert (Assistant),
Pierre Enselle (Treasurer).

News

Obituary

Last December, we were all saddened to learn that Michel Fiquet died after a short fight with a sudden illness. We shall all remember his dynamic personality as well as his total dedication while he was at BACO in Amsterdam.

Website

Our website is presently being remodelled. By mid-year, it will have a new look and more facilities and will become interactive !

Reunion 2005

Many proposals for the venue of our next reunion were made at the last General Meeting of our Voting Members. Today, it looks as though Strasbourg will be the preferred meeting place !